The Constitutional Consention—Alarm of the Free State mere—An Extra Session of the Le-gislature—Th: blilitia to be Organized.

QUINDARO, KARRAS, Nov. 9.

The Constitutional Convention baying framed a pro-slavery constitution, and closed its labors, the Free State men who have heretofore looked from voting for it.

As the large emigration of last spring was thrown out at the last election by the six months residence clause, the free State susjectly is much hager than that would show, and it is confidently believed that if the legislature will permit all who have resided thruy days in the territory to other that the unique with the constitution.

The question as to who is Governor elect of Wisconsin, seems to be settled in favor of the Republican candidate, Judge RANDALL.

WHO IS GOVERNOR?

The returns from the North, yesterday, it generally conceded, go far to settle this long dieputed question. There bardly remains a doubt that ALEXANDER W. RANDALL, the Republican candidate, is elected Governor by from one to three hundred majority. As to the rest of the State licket, the Republicans have probably carried the Lt. Governor, Treasurer and State Prison Commissioner, and the Democrats the Secretary of State, Attorney General and Superintendent of Public Instruction. The Comptroller is in doubt, as, indeed, are some of the others.--All but eleven small, counties have been officially heard from.

AllLED BY THE CARS!—A sed accident hap-pened near the depot in this place last Thursday afternoon, just before dark, by which Charles Beardaley, a brakeman on the construction train, lost his lite. They were switching cars with a rope, and were using a pole, for some purpose, between the conjust tender and a platform car, when the pole broke and Beardslay was crushed between the tender and car, killing him instant-Randall 478 and three Counties to hear from, which will not, probably, give 50 votes either way. Deducting the reported majority of 817 for for Cross in the rejected towns of Jefferson Co. there still remains a margin of 161 for Randall to meet "contingencies!" We think that he is elected Governor, beyond all reasonable doubt.

DOUGLAS AND LA POINTE .-- A private letter, published in the Madison Patriot, dated Superior, Nov. 8, states the majority for Cross in Douglas or, Nov. 8, states the majority for Cross in Douglas was at St. Paul yesterday morning, proparing to County at S5. The Superior Ohronicle, (Dem.) start, one of the 10th inst.. gives the vote of Superior at hose towards the levee, and thoroughly wetted 145 for Cross, 28 for Randall. There is, we believe, no other precinct in Douglas coenty. The same paper says, that 45 votes were polled at La Pointe, mostly democratic. We call the two counties, 160 for Cross.

FORT LEAVENWORER, Kaneas, Nov. S.
The purchase by Gov. Walker and the nonrious Geo. N Sanders of a part of the Fort Leavenworth reservation, though not authentically amounced yet, has received confirmation from such a variety of circumstances that it is Then non-tive, one would almost suppose that a genuine of laint transferred by this sale is variously stated at from five hundred and seventy-five to seven hundred agost. It is the part immediately joining the rown of Leavenworth, and emb acceptable the most of what is known as the "Government Karm," We meant to have taken full notes the most of what is known as the "Government Karm," Rarm."

It is by far the most desirable part of the reservation, not only from its location but because its surface is very tavorable for laying out into town lots, and decause it embraces the most of the river front belonging to the recervation. The Western part of the reservation is esc eningly broken, and the Northern part does not come to the river—being separated from it by a broad, swampy bottom. swampy fottom.

The only part of the reservation left, that is of any value, is the epot on which the Government buildings stand. This is not more then about the never-lading Jewish cast of countenance, not even excepting the nose and oses, and retain torty scres.

I have just learned from the Quarter master that he has written to Washington to remonstrate against the sale. He says this tract cannot now be well spared, as it embaces nearly all the land that is used for farming purposes on the reservation, and that he has recommended to the deto this day the names of tancied progenitors, as the nume of their claus, such as Joseph's Tribe, Solomon's Tribe, No h's Tribe, Issiah's Tribe, Ishmael's Tribe, &c., &c. These are supposed to be descendants of Abraham by Keturah of whom we read in Gun. 25:6 That Abraham partment, if the sale is already made, to secure a lense of it for a term of years.

The price paid for this fand, it is easid, was $25 an acre.

E. E. gave them gifts and sent them away eastward in to the East country. Another very singular thing is the Hot Winds which one felt in the N. W. provinces during the months, of June, July, and August. White in the houses which are kept shut up to keep out the heat, the thermometer ranges about 90, yet if you take it out to the west side, in the shade, where, the wind is blowing, about half a gale, the the Free State men who have heretofore looked capon the whole thing as a farce, seem suddenly to have awakened to a sense of their danger. A meeting was held in Lawrence on Sattoray night to determine what course the Free Satte men should take. Two propositious were before the meeting. One to call on Gov. Walker to converte the Legislature at once, and one to provide for an immediate organization of the militia of of the territory. mercury immediately rises till it reaches 120, snow, but they were far behind a storm of dust of the certifory.

As there seems but little hope of excluding While you might be under a clear cloudless sky, stavery except by torce, the latter proposition you see at a distance a pillow of dark clouds move ing towards you from the west, having a lumin, Even it Got. Walker consents to call the Legislature together, they have no power over the Constitution, or over the provisions of the Convention that framed it. They cannot after or repust the provision which denies its submission to the provision which denies its submission to the people. It is said Got. Walker has expressed his willingness to call together the Legislature if requested to do so, and this suspected that this willingness proceeds in no small degree from his knowledge that this body can do nothing in the premises when convened. The thing is done, and there is no help in Territorial Legislature how. ous fiery appearance, with a circling of fire upis done, and there is no help in Territorial Logislature now.

The Legislature, if convened, will provide for a gopular vote on the constitution, depending onarely upon its moral effect. Though it can have no legal lorce, yet some Free-State men here seem to think that if a tremendous popular vote is polled against the constitution, and it is fully and legally shown that nine-tenths of the inhabitants of the Territory are opposed to it, that may deter some Northern Democrate in Congress from youing for it.

We understand that this is the first lectype he has a yet given. He feigned man acture he has ever given. His friends may well speak highly of his ability. His habit of speaking extemporaneously, barely using notes, as reference, adds greatly to the interest. To-night, the Lecture is upon the East India COMPANY, from its earliest commencement to the present, its connection with the British Crown.

and its plan of governing the country. They feel that this constitution is only part of the programme arranged at Washington when Walk er chare out, and that his Isothernal Excellency The Theater To Night.-The bill offered for this evening's entertainment at the Metropolitan would not have thrown out the fraudulent re-tures had he not known that he had a "dead sure thing" on them in the Constitutional Convection. The conviction among the free-batte men here, is that, as every part of the programme in the ne-tion to make Kansas a slave State has been so the converted over all conventions that theatre is an unusually interesting one. Miss Davenport makes her first appearance in tragedy, and her last but one in our city. She will appear as Juliet in Shakespeare's much admired tragedy of Rosseo and Juliet, Mr. Mulholland aking the part of Romeo. As a tragic actress, Miss Davenport has but one, if any equal upon the American stage, and from what we have seen of her performance, we venture to say that her representation of the character in which she appears this evening will be a dramatic treat such as our citizens will have but few opportunities of enjoying. The entertainment will close with an afterpiece in which Mr. Johnson takes part, which is a pretty certain guarantee that it will

We look upon this as a wise step, and one that would prove profitable to not only the Crockery merchants, but nearly all the storekeepers in the city if it were generally adopted. It is gur opin ion that there are many establishments in the city which do a large business through the day, that don't sell enough after dark to pay for their gaslight, but keep open nevertheless because othera do the same.

The Crockery dealers have set a good example which we hope to see others follow

MISS DAVENPORT AS PARTHERIA -- MISS DA-YENPOLT made her second appearance last evening, as Parthenia, in the play of " Ingomar." The house was but half filled, the inclemency of the weather keeping many away; but those present enjoyed another rich treat. Miss Davenrour is, beyond question, without a rival on the American stage, unless we except Miss Cuan MAN, and last night gave her audience another proof of her consummate ability. She appears to-night, the last but one of her engagement, as Julist, and we can only repeat what we said yesterday, that none who appreciate really uxcellent acting should fail to see her. NARROW ESCAPE OF FOUR SMALL CHILDREN

The Rejected Votes in Jefferson Co. The closeness of the contest for Governor leads unusual interest to every detail of the recent election and each official return is jeulously scrusinized by all parties. Our readers are aware that Jefferson County has been officially canvassed at 98 majority for Randall; the County Board having rejected the returns from the five towns of Ashrpiun, Emmett, Lebanon, Portland and Shields on the ground that these towns belong to Dodge and not to Jefferson County. In these towns there is a majority of some 300 for Mr. Cross, and it is generally conceded that without their vote he is defeated. The question then recurs, can the votes of those five towns be count ed and allowed for Mr. Cross. The Republican papers hold that the State Canvassers cannot count them, but must be governed by the County Canvass; and therefore that Mr. Caosa can only get the benefit of this vote by applying to the Supreme Court. REPARATIONS FOR THE ASSAULT-THE BOMDARD-But to complete, so far as my present materials will alow, the story of the avenging army.— When I closed my last letter, we had heard that a heavy sigge, pring was expected to readth the camp in a very few days, and that works were camp in a very tew cusy, and that words were coing erected wherein to mount the gons or their arrival. While the troops were thus busy the, enemy were hactive. There were none of those desperate sallies from the city that characterized the early days of the siege, when duy by day successive waves of mutiny were sharered against, the heights of the Bridan positions and against the actions of the objects of the only though their artillery was not silent, the only auccess attained was on the hight of the 1st of September, when a shell from the battery on the further side of the river burst among a picket of the 61st, in from of the Metcalf house, killing 2 men and wounding 7.
On the morning of the 4th arrived in camp the

On the morning of the 4th arrived in camp the long looked for slegg train, of between thirty and forty heavy guns, howitzets and mortars, with large quantities of ammunition, escored by the wing of the 5th foot, two more companies of the 61st, and a wing of the 1st Beeloch battallon of the Bombay army, On the 5th came in from of the Homes, stands of the frintercement in 200 of the 50th Rifles and 100 Artillers, recentled to the blatter; were added forty-five, men of the 9th Lancers. The place of this detachment was supplied at Moerut by the 7th Puplab infantry. On by the army was further stretgth-by, the 4th Paujab, rifles under. In those operations we sustained a loss of something under firty killed and wounded, two officers, being among the former, Lieutehants Hildebrand, of the Bengal artillery, and Bailnerman, of the, Bonbay, insileers, attached to the Baglopchees, the latter a promising young officer, well-known to myself and to many people. nero, and by all regretted. The next day was marked by the opening of the advanced pattemarked by the opening of the knowleds between rive on the Aloree basilon, and by the arrival in camp of the Jummoo or Cashmers Countgent — Mennachle; the engineers were hard at work in the crecion of their batteries. On the 11th a moutar, battery opened on the Moree from the Koodsea, Bagh at little more than 300 yards, and tion the Cashmere and Water bastions a fire man the Cosamere and Weber, bastons is free was commenced from 16, have gens and 10 large mortars, planted as two points in frost of the enclosure known as hadow lost the not so poted in Wyld's map. On the 12st the attack on the Water baston was swenignened by four 18-pounders, and two light (64 methods and increased afterwards apparently to eight of the force and 12 of the latter,) planted at 200 and 250 yards from the wall and the Cus to House, compound; near the river. The fire of the eneiny was most severe, upon the last numed batteries, which were exposed not only to the, guns of the Water Distinct, but to those in the guns of the Water Dashor, but to those in the old inner-fort of Selinghur, and also to those on the other-place of the civion. Here Captain and in that city from Boston etate that the new long of the Artillory described as a monteners. were rescued from Nicaragua, and brought to this sugar, of the Artillery, described as a most enterwere rescued from Nicaregue, and brought to this control, the career of the fillibuster was ended from Nicaregue with great redat in the head.—No other fatal casualty occurred among the officers during these days, not does not be under the head.—No other fatal casualty occurred among two officers during these days, not does not desired bis intention to repure to the lather considering the proximity of the batteries at the considering the proximity of the batteries at the mails and the tenscity of the defence, the enemy with another army. The business of recruiting his gone on so openly that everybody except the seeping up a vigorous firs of mosketry from fifle pits and patches of jungle even attention theory guns were tendered unserviceable. This latter result was rapidly produced by the precision and know of it; and after the ceremony of a search(!) by a U. S. official, Walker's steamer, loaded with by a U. The Course series.—The Cleveland. Herald bastion only a light gun on two at intervals replied. to the heavy shot and shall that were poured in to it. At the other end of the works the Water bastion had suffered scarcely less severely, its basion bad suffered scarcely less severely, ite externe magazine was blown up, and a light gun which enfiladed our butteries and been elichued. And now, the moment for the assault drawing near, General Wilson promulgated the general order of the day.

The order says that the troops will assist the engineers in the erection of bitteries and trenches, and in daily exposure to the sun as covering parties—that the arullery will have hard work for a short time, when ordered to the assault the Major General feels assured British pluck and determination will carry everything before them, and that the bloc others and immederous mutineers against whom they are fighting, with be driven headlong out of their stroughoid, or be exterminated—but to enable them to do this, he warns the troops of the desolute necessity of their keeping.

One coulumn, however, consisting of Ghoorkas One commu, however, consisting of Gnoorkes and the newly arrived Jummoo contingent, was One column, however, consisting of choories and the newly strived Jummo contingent, was an ected to make a diversion by stracking the Kishingunge suburb, which lies outside the Labories gate on the western side of the city, and if it is isceeded in carrying the alburb to assaur the gate itself. The Cashmerian troops behaved indifferently, and if a spite of the efforts of the brave Ghoorkas the column was repulsed. Its commanding officer, Major Reed of the Sirmoot backling, the morthern side of the city all went well.
